

A collection of ten blue and white geometric and floral patterns, arranged in two rows. The top row features five distinct designs: a cross-like star with a central diamond, a six-pointed star with floral motifs, a square with a central flower and radiating lines, a square with a complex internal floral pattern, and a star with a thick, ornate border. The bottom row features five designs: a circular pattern with a central flower and a decorative border, a grid of octagons, a repeating grid of small flowers, a repeating grid of stylized leaves and berries, and a grid of diamonds with small floral motifs at the intersections.
